

The screenshot shows the top portion of the NSPCC website. At the top left is the 'NSPCC' logo. In the center, the tagline 'EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR' is displayed. On the top right, there is a 'Donate' button. Below the header is a navigation menu with links: 'What is child abuse?', 'Keeping children safe', 'Support us', 'About us', and 'Coronavirus advice'. On the right side of the menu are 'Helpline' and 'Search' options. The main heading is 'Keeping children safe'. Below the heading is a paragraph: 'Support and tips to help you keep children safe. From advice on children's mental health to staying safe online, support for parents and what to do if you're worried about a child.' At the bottom, there are three green boxes with white text and buttons. The first box is titled 'Away from home' and contains the text 'Children starting school or work, and taking part in activities can be both exciting and worrying. We've got tips to help you keep children safe.' with a 'Find out more' button. The second box is titled 'Children's mental health' and contains the text 'Advice on how to support your child if they're struggling with depression, anxiety, self-harm or suicidal thoughts.' with a 'Learn more' button. The third box is titled 'In the home' and contains the text 'We've got advice to help children build up independence at their pace, keeping them safe both at home and if they're moving out.' with a 'Learn more' button.
